alongside aromas of dried flowers
Grape Variety: Tempranillo, Garnacha, Syrah (Organic Wine)

16 glass

78 bottle

Chateau de la Bouyere Rouge

(Bordeaux, France)

Nose of red currant and strawberry delights by its harmony.
The tasting goes on with a soft and fruity mouth, where tannins, still there, progressively fade, leaving behind a well-balanced, fruity aftertaste.

128 bottle

Il Molino Di Grace Chianti Classico Riserva

(Tuscany, Italy)

Rich, concentrated and full of cherry and plum fruit, this red is complex, with liquorice, spice and tobacco notes and dense tannins enmeshed in the texture.
The long finish is firm, expressive, imparting a savoury, mineral aftertaste.

158 bottle

Buena Vista North Coast Pinot Noir

(Sonoma County, California)

Enticing aromas of raspberry, cocoa powder, clove and cardamom.
Flavours of red fruits, cherry pie and hints of cinnamon softly spread across the palate.

118 bottle

Tinto Negro Finca La Escuela Malbec

(Mendoza Uco Valley, Argentina)

The grapes are harvested over a 3-week period, with 10 different harvest dates for a mixture of different soil profiles that increase the complexity of the final wine. Strong aromas of balsamic, mint and eucalyptus.
The palate is medium-bodied, with sweet, round tannins, clean flavours and good balance and persistence.
